M. & O. AND STRIKERS PLEASED WITH TERMS

As Many Old Employes as Possible Will Be Returned to Work.

ONE ENGINE TO FORTY CARS.

Both Sides Sign a Two-Year Scale Which Is Satisfactory te All Concerned.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Mobile, Ala., May 20.—After two days' de-liberation between Messrs. Lee and Wilkins, on behalf of the strikers, and General Manager Clarke and General Counsel Russell, for the road, the Mobile and Ohlo strike was amicably ended at 5 o'clock this afternoon, both sides signing a two-year scale, which will place as many of the old men at work as the company can find places for.

A long agreement was drawn up on both sides, and the men believe they have the best of it. Neither side will give out an official statement, but from what The Republic has learned from the men, the strike has been settled on this basis.

has been settled on this basis.

Seven and a half and ten percent increase from first of April for all men who are returned to work by the road as many men as possible (the men estimate ninety percent) to be taken back in the employ of the company; forty freight cars to be a maximum on single engine trains and all overthat number to be considered double headers and to employ double train crews.

This last clause is really what the men were fighting for, and its agreement may be considered the real cause of the strike settlement.

considered the real cause considered the real cause considered the real cause. The men say they have won. The road says it has made the best terms ever made in a strike in the last ten years. From all appearances it looks like a draw.

PRIEST ACTED AS BANKER. Death of Father P. J. Lotz May

Cause Financial Tangle. The sudden death of the Reverend Father Peter J. Lotz, pastor of St. Francis de Sales Church at Ohio and Gravois avenues Sales Church at Ohio and Gravois avenues, revealed the fact that the pastor was a banker as well as a priest. Many of the parishloners had invested their savings with nim, and his death, it is said, will result in a financial tangle.

All the papers pertaining to the money are locked in a safe, of which the dead priest alone knew the combination Archishop Glennon, as trustee for the church property, may be able to straighten out the matter. matter.
For many years Father Lotz had conducted a banking business for the benefit of the church. He would borrow money at the rate of 8 per cent interest and loan it again at 5. The profits were used to pay the church debt. the church debt.

The exact amount the priest had borrowed is not known, as he did not share bis business matters with his assistants, but it is believed to be a considerable sum. For security notes were given on the church property. For security notes were given on the church property.

Herman Schefe of No. 2513 Iowa avenue, one of the church trustees, states that there is no doubt that the affairs will be found in good shape when the safe is opened, Depositors, he said, were at liberty to withdraw their money at any time. By the arrangement, he said, almost all of the church debt was paid.

Mrs. Georgia Lee Cheaney to Be Sent to a Sanitarium.

Sent to a Sanitarium.

Prosecuting Attorney Charles P. Williams vesterday morning entered a nolle prosequi in the case of Mrs. Georgie Lee Cheaney, and by order of Judge Moore she will be committed to a sanitarium.

Mrs. Cheaney formerly kept a boardinghouse at No. 5590 Cabanne avenue. Among her boarders were Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Norris. It was charged by Mr. Norris that when he left Mrs. Cheaney's home a trunk containing clothing and valuable articles was left behind.

When he called for it, he says, much of his property was missing. Subsequently it was found. Mr. Norris swore out a warrant charging Mrs. Cheaney with grand larceny. Mrs. Cheaney's physician corroborated the statement of her relatives that she was irresponsible.

GIRL SUES HER FATHER FOR POSSESSION OF PIANO.

Miss Myrtle Beckham, 14 Years Old, Replevins Instrument Which She Claims Belongs to Her.

Myrtle Beckham, a 14-year-old school girl, is attempting by means of a writ of replevin to recover possession of a piano which she alleges is her property, and which is now in possession of her father, P. L. Bockham of No. 1516 Deer street, who is named as

Yesterday afternoon a Deputy Sheriff seized the instrument at the residence of the plaintiff's father, and the case will be the plaintiff's father, and the case will be heard in Judge Spaulding's court, May 29.

Miss Beckham is a pupil at the Monticello Seminary and is said to be an heiress. Her mother died about three years ago, leaving her property to the girl.

Her father remarried, and upon application to the Illinois court R. W. Green of Jerseyville was appointed guardian of Miss Myrtle and her property.

She continued to make her residence with her father and stepmother, however, and was accustomed to spend Saturday and Sunday of each week with them.

Recently Miss Myrtle says she had reason to change her residence and went to live with her guardian. This did not meet the approval of Mr. and Mrs. Beckham, according to the girl's story.

About eighteen months ago Miss Myrtle purchased a plane, but chaims to her father's home. When she left the latter place she sent for the plane, but claims that her father refused to surrender the instrument.

She accordingly made application through strument.

She accordingly made application through her guardian for a writ of replevin, which was granted by Judge Spaulding. ELEVEN TRUE BILLS FOUND.

City Register FitzGibbon refused to accept the bound copies of the Mayor's message yesterday afternoon which had been prepared by an afternoon paper under contract. The contract was let while Secretary

McConkey was acting City Register. When delivery of the books was attempted FitzGibbon denied admittance to repreentatives of the publishers, and the books were left strewn about the hall near the City Register's office,

The men appealed to the Mayor, who took the matter under advisement, until he could confer with the law department and learn if FitzGibbon's action was ground ond tearn if FitzGibbon's action was ground for suspension.

FitzGibbon asserts that the contract for the printing which he let to another company was valid in every respect, and says that he could do nothing else than refuse to receive other copies. He st. add last night that he would sue for liber because of statements made in the paper.

HEARING ON BOBB LITIGATION.

Contest Began Between Son and Father in 1869.

The hearing of a branch of the Bobb litigation, which has been in the courts since 1869, was begun in Judge McDonald's division of the Circuit Court yesferday and will be on trial again to-day.

John H. Bobb is seeking to have certain property made subject to a claim of about $100,000 against the estate of his father, the late Charles Bobb.

The litigation originated by Charles Bobb

The suit was brought by Martha E Haemer against Henry Wieser. She sought to recover title to fifty-one acres of land in the Columbia Bottom, fronting on the river. Yesterday her attorney wyote to Circuit Clerk Hollocher asking him to dismiss the suit, stating that the current of the river had washed all but four acres of it away. He did not think that what was left was worth the expense of litigation.

The plaintiff expected to prove her title through a claim that Christian Wieser, who died twenty years ago, had adopted her. The land descended to a son, who sold it to Henry Wieser. As the adopted daughter, she maintained that she inherited equally with the son an interest in the property.
